

WHO REALLY CARES ABOUT YOUR BEST INTEREST?

What part of this do you not get?

Simple Question; Why do you think these or any other politician have your best interest in mind?
Did they make Millions off of You and I?

Source: <http://www.opensecrets.org/pfds/>

According to data from the Center for Responsive Politics, 319 of the 535 members of Congress are millionaires. That's 60%.

The combined minimum net worth of this year's 50 wealthiest lawmakers was $1.6 billion, over $200 million more than in 2010.

Sen. Mark Warner (D-Va.) -- $76.3 Million
(6.1 Million since 2009?)

Sen. Jay Rockefeller (D-W. Va.) -- $81.6 Million
(Great grandfather's money)

Sen. John Kerry (D-Mass.) -- $193.3 Million
(Momma's money?)

Sponsored or co-sponsored 152 earmarks totaling $252,482,300 in fiscal year 2010, ranking 8th out of 100 senators.

Rep. Darrell Issa (R-Calif.) -- $220.4 Million
(Car Alarms?)

Rep. Michael McCaul (R-Texas) -- $287.0 Million
($213 Million in fortune grew since 2010?)

Jane Harman (D-Calif) -- $160.08 Million

(Sponsored or co-sponsored 22 earmarks totaling $16,451,000 in fiscal year 2010, ranking 247th out of 435 representatives.)

Herb Kohl (D-Wis) -- $88.22 Million

Jared Polis (D-Colo) -- $57.9 Million

Vernon Buchanan (R-Fla) -- $50.72 Million

Nancy Pelosi (D-Calif) -- $5.9 Million

Ten years of America going deeper into debt, yet our politicians appear to be gaining in wealth in a two year period? It is easy to see who's pockets get cared for. Not yours or mine!

When will "We the People..." wake up?

Where has our debt situation gotten any better?
And our present selection of Presidential Candidates are better?

VOTE 2012

The 600 Trillion Dollar FUBAR is here