RE: Dinner with Barack Obama

Dear campaign manager,

I am excited to donate to you today for a chance to have dinner with the President.

I have enclosed my $5 million dollar donation in support of the campaign and looking forward to the meal and a good conversation as I have many questions to ask. Here are my eNotes as payment.

$1,000,000.00

$1,000,000.00

$1,000,000.00

$1,000,000.00

$1,000,000.00

They might not look like much on paper but President Clinton and Congress enacted the Esign Act to ensure these babies will pass as a paper negotiable instrument. I plan on supporting them with these also.

As these are continually used within the Secondary “payment Intangible” Market, I believe to the extent of around 600 Trillion Dollars, possibly more. I’m sure that can be of value to your campaign.

Don’t believe Mr. Joseph Sommers of the Federal Reserve in New York when he made the statement that these things are Rabid Cows. Investors all over the world have purchased them and I haven’t heard any complaints yet.

I look forward to the dinner. What are we having?

Sincerely,
AlvieC
